Ofsted

We are delighted to have received a very good verbal report from the Ofsted team. We are not allowed to publish any findings until the written report is received, but congratulations are certainly due to the whole school community for what you will shortly see has been recognised as a great achievement.

Many thanks to everyone who sent good-will messages, cakes, etc. and who returned questionnaires or attended meetings. Your support is part of the strength that has been recognised.

Well done especially to all of the children and staff!

Wider Opportunities Concerts

Well done to all of the year 3 children and teachers who took part in the two concerts!

The audiences were highly impressed with your new-found talent. Keep up the good work!

Special thanks to Ms Tomlinson and Ms Radford for giving up their evenings at such a busy time.
